

Before the Morning - Josh Wilson

Intro: A D F#m D-E

Verse 1:

A D F#m
Do you wonder why you have to feel the things that hurt you?

D E
If there's a God who loves you where is He now?

A D
Or maybe there are things you can't see

F#m D
And all those things are happening to bring a better ending

Someday, somehow you'll see, you'll see

Chorus: [A F#m D E]

Would you dare, would you dare to believe
That you still have a reason to sing?
'Cause the pain that you've been feeling
It can't compare to the joy that's coming

So hold on, you gotta wait for the light
Press on and just fight the good fight
'Cause the pain that you've been feeling
It's just the dark before the morning

Instrumental 1 to Verse 2: [A D E]

Instrumental 2 to Bridge : [A D F#m D]

Verse 2:

A A
My friend, you know how this all ends

F#m
And you know where you're going

D E
You just don't know how you'll get there so say a prayer

And hold on 'cause there's good for those who love God

But life is not a snapshot, it might take a little time

But you'll see the bigger picture

Bridge:

A B C#m D
Once you feel the weight of glory

A B C#m D
All your pain will fade to memory

A B C#m D
Once you feel the weight of glory

A B C#m D E
All your pain will fade to memory, memory, memory, yeah

F#m A
Oh, the pain that you've been feeling

D E
It's just the dark before the morning

[A D F#m D]
